

Projects Abroad Flight Prices

You can choose to book your flights through Projects Abroad. Here's why it's a good idea:

- We use safe and reliable scheduled airlines.
- We arrange sensible routes and layover times.
- We get you changeable tickets.
- We arrange transfers from/to our specified airport automatically.
- Where possible we try to put you on the same flight as at least one other volunteer.

Once you apply, our in-house Travel Team can put together customised flight quotes for you. Below is a table showing sample quote prices for each destination. Please bear in mind that these are samples only, and are subject to change according to factors such as the time of year you are travelling.

Flights for volunteers who pay their balance less than three months before their scheduled start date are subject to possible flight rate increases.

Flights booked for departures to some destinations in July and August may also be liable to a surcharge.

Prices for round the world tickets, 3-country or more combinations and combinations other than those above are not available before application. Flight prices quoted are for return flights from Dublin to our specified airports. Return flights from other airports are possible, but there may be an extra charge. For some destinations you can choose to be met at an alternative airport for an extra fee (see below).

After application we are happy to discuss your individual requirements and offer you no-obligation quotes.

Onward flights to other places or round the world.

Prices for onward flights and for round-the-world tickets will be quoted according to individual requests.

Alternative Airport Transfer Prices

You have the option to fly to the following alternative airports, where we can still arrange your round-trip airport transfers for an additional fee.

Destination	Alternative Airport	Transfer Price
Cambodia	Siem Reap (instead of Phnom Penh)	€ 220
Thailand	Phuket (instead of Krabi)	€ 245
